

Douglass Public Library Internet Access Restriction Form

A parent or legal guardian may restrict his/her minor who is under the Kansas age of majority, which is 18 years of age, from access to Internet resources available at the Douglass Public Library. The Internet Access Restriction will not apply to the minor accessing online reference databases approved by the Kansas State Library or KAN-ED. The parent or legal guardian is required to complete this form and present parent's/guardian's proof of identification as per library registration policies. Signature of parent/guardian is also required.
