

POLICY FOR PATRONS USING PUBLIC ACCESS COMPUTER AT THE NICKERSON PUBLIC LIBRARY:

It is the intent of the Nickerson Public Library Board to provide a computer for patron usage. All holders of current Nickerson Public Library cards are eligible to use the Public Access Computer. All computer users must sign in with the librarian before using the computer. The computer is intended for educational use, not for playing games.

Black and white copies will cost ten cents. All color copies will cost 25 cents. Patrons shall be liable for all copies printed, good or not. Permission to print must be obtained from the librarian, and any library business being printed takes precedence.

No files may be saved on the library's hard drive. Files may be copied to a diskette purchased from the library.

The computer will be used on a first come, first serve basis. A time limit of 30 minutes on the Public Access Computer may be imposed if others are waiting to use it.

COMPUTER/INTERNET USE AGREEMENT

I have read the Nickerson Public Library Internet Access and Acceptable Use Policy. By signing this I agree to abide by the Policies and Procedures set by the Nickerson Public Library. I understand that the Nickerson Public Library reserves the right to discontinue computer and Internet use privileges if I fail to follow the computer, Internet, or general Library rules and regulations.

I agree to pay the cost of replacement and/or repair for items lost or damaged while in my use or care.

The Nickerson Public Library will not be responsible for injury or damages to individuals or groups resulting from the use of the computer or Internet.
